TWO CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS SOON

The United States civil service commission announces two examinations for the classified service, which will be held in Las Vegas this month. One of the examinations is that of junior engineer in the geological survey at salaries ranging from $840 to $1,200 per annum. The other position is that of junior chemist, also in the geological survey, at salaries ranging from $960 to $1,200 per annum. The first named examination will be held November 23-24 and the second on November 24.

Applicants should at once apply either to the United States civil service commission, Washington, D. C., or to the secretary of the local board of examiners. No application will be accepted unless properly executed and filed with the commission at Washington.

As examination papers are shipped direct from the commission to the places of examination, it is necessary that applications be received in ample time to arrange for the examination desired at the place indicated by the applicant. The commission will arrange to examine any applicant whose application is received in time to permit the shipment of the necessary papers.

A Methodist Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.
"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for several years for diarrhoea. I consider it the best remedy I have ever tried for that trouble. I bought a bottle of it a few days ago from our druggist, Mr. R. R. Brooks. I shall ever be glad to speak a word in its praise when I have the opportunity."—Rev. J. D. Knapp, Pastor M. E. church, Miles Grove, Pa. Sold by all dealers.

Every time a modest girl sees a man look in her direction she imagines he is trying to start a flirtation.

Forced Into Exile
Wm. Upchurch of Glenn Oak, Okla., was an exile from home. Mountain air, he thought, would cure a frightful lung-racking cough that had defied all remedies for two years. After six months he returned, death dogging his steps. "Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery," he writes, "and after taking six bottles I am as well as ever." It saves thousands yearly from desperate lung diseases. Infinitely for coughs and colds, it dispels hoarseness and sore throat. Cures grip, bronchitis, hemorrhages, asthma, croup, whooping cough. 50c and $1.00, trial bottle free, guaranteed by all druggists.

It's awfully hard for a man to make love to his wife when he has a holl on the back of his neck.

A Hair's Breadth Escape
Do you know that every time you have a cough or cold and let it run on thinking it will just cure itself you are inviting pneumonia, consumption or some other pulmonary trouble? Don't risk it. Put your lungs back in perfect health and stop that cough with Ballard's Horehound Syrup. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Center Block Depot Drug Co.

Any one can make predictions, but few can make them stay predicted.

What Would You Do?
In case of a burn or scald what would you do to relieve the pain? Such injuries are liable to occur in any family and everyone should be prepared for them. Chamberlain's Salve applied on a soft cloth will relieve the pain almost instantly, and unless the injury is a very severe one, will cause the parts to heal without leaving a scar. For sale by all dealers.

COMING ATTRACTIONS

A Wall Street Play.
Dishonest business transactions in Wall Street are sharply attacked in Olive Porter's new play, "The Ringmaster" which the Shuberts will present next Tuesday night, November 9, at the Duncan Opera house, with the original cast and production direct from a successful run on the Pacific coast.

In "The Ringmaster" Miss Porter endeavors to contrast the old and new methods of doing business in the Street. This she does by making the hero, John LeBaron, the son of a former magnate in Wall Street who accomplished his ends regardless of the methods of honest men, meet while traveling abroad Eleanor Hillary, the daughter of Richard Hillary, known as "the ringmaster of Wall Street." Miss Hillary tries to induce LeBaron to give up his life of ease, return to America and become a stock broker. Sooner than he expects he is invited to participate in a deal with Eleanor's father, but he quickly learns that if he lends his help and money it will not only cripple a rival company, but cost the fortunes of many children and widows. The financial fight that is waged between the the situations funny, and though at moments there is a dramatic situation or a tenderly pathetic line which generally seem incongruous or bordering on the melo-dramatic in a musical comedy, they are introduced here with a tact and deftness which only heightens their enjoyment, as a contrast to the fun of a moment before. Another merit of the play is that it is absolutely clean. There is not a suggestive line or scene in the play, and if "The Girl Question" is a question of girls, its rating must be A1 for no prettier, more youthful or merrier chorus was ever assembled. The show girls are regally beautiful, yet have no lack of animation, while the little brothers are childishly eager and happy in their delightful dances. Ned Wytburn staked the production.

"Texas" a Romantic Drama.
Frank Conway, well known as an actor of romantic roles, formerly in the company of Henrietta Crossman, Mrs. Falke and other noted stars is now touring the Pacific coast in the popular romantic drama, "Texas," at the head of an exceptionally strong cast of players. This show will be

"The Girl Question."
Fresh and pretty, funny and tuneful, snappy and dashing the new music play, "The Girl Question," a coming attraction at the Duncan Opera house, is beyond all question the best of the series of LaSalle theatre productions, including "The Time, The Place and The Girl," "The Umpire," and a half dozen other record breaking successes.

Although "The Girl Question" has been running in Chicago since the 17th of August, it is still playing the capacity, while the company which will be seen here has a cast which is in every way its equal and in several instances its superior.

The characters in "The Girl Question" are every day men and women who are pictured with such fidelity to life, who are so natural and so human that they create an instant sympathy with an audience which makes them appreciative and absorbingly interested from the rise to the fall of the curtain.

Like "The Time, The Place, and The Girl," the book and lyrics for "The Girl Question" were written by Frank Adams and Will Hough, and the music by Joseph E. Howard. The jokes are keenly witty and original, seen at the Duncan Opera house, Thursday night November 11.

"Texas" has been seen here before and since then has scored a triumphant success through the great cities of the north and east.

"Texas" was written by J. Mauldin Feigl a native of the Lone Star state, whose knowledge of the subject was gained by a long residence in Val Verde county.

The author is now a resident of New York City, successful as a dramatist and magazine writer.

IT'S ALWAYS BAD.

The Best of Backs Are Bad When They Ache, and E. Las Vegas People Know It.

A bad back is always bad. Bad at night when bedtime comes, Just as bad in the morning. Ever try Doan's Kidney Pills for it? Know they cure backache—cure every kidney ill?

If you don't, some E. Las Vegas people do.

Read a case of it: J. B. Mackel, 410 Grand avenue, East Las Vegas, N. M., says: "For several years I have strongly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to persons suffering from kidney complaint in any form. As the result of a cold which settled in my kidneys, my back ached severely and I had pains through my loins. When I did any work that required the use of muscles of my back, the suffering was aggravated. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at the Center Block Pharmacy, showed their worth by disposing of every symptom of the trouble. I publicly endorsed this remedy at that time and now after a lapse of several years, I can again speak in its praise. Doan's Kidney Pills can never fail to give me relief from kidney disorders."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
